

Launching FSEMC 2008
and open for industry comment until the 31st of December, 2008 via online survey at:

www.fseta.com/survey

For inquires please contact us at :info@fseta.com

Flight Simulation Engineer and Technician Association
PO Box 29509, Dubai, United Arab Emirates,
Fax: +971 4 366 3446

Your Career

Your Industry

Your Association

Formal membership open 2009

www.fseta.com
info@fseta.com

OUR MISSION

FSETA is an independent non-profit organisation dedicated to providing standards and services for its members in the flight simulation industry.

OUR VISION

The vision of the FSETA is to:

- Establish an identity with a global industry-recognised certification for the workforce
- Define career paths and establish criteria to adhere to a common recognised standard of best practice
- Explore and develop solutions for meeting and maintaining regulatory requirements

TYPES OF MEMBERSHIP

- Technician
- Engineer
- Operator
- Associate

CODE OF ETHICS

FSETA strictly enforces a Code of Ethics to guarantee members privacy, equal opportunity and at all times represent its members in a professional manner

WHY JOIN?

Individuals who wish to become members of FSETA will have access to the following benefits:

- Accreditation
- Career development
- Industry-wide exposure
- Training and Workshops (3rd party provided)
- Consultation

Operators and associate members will also qualify for the following benefits:

- Organizational accreditation
- Workforce evaluation and accreditation
- Recruitment advertising
- Consultation